Manager, Strategic Support

We have an exciting opportunity for a seasoned professional who will provide strategic leadership and direction to the development and implementation of the integrated services of strategic planning and project management. This position plays a critical role to lead the executive and senior leadership teams through the implementation of strategies and programs that will advance the organization's strategic position. If you have an agile and flexible approach to work, strong communication skills and have a proven capacity to identify, develop and implement complex corporate initiatives this may be the position for you.

Responsibilities

- Leading the executive and senior leadership teams with the development of annual business plans, including establishing short- and long-term corporate objectives and targets.
- Facilitating discussions with executive and senior management on strategy and risk.
- Leading the generation of strategic and operational initiatives to drive achievement of strategies and corporate objectives as set by the executive and senior leadership.
- Initiating periodic redevelopment of strategies by the executive team and senior leaders to ensure the strategy remains appropriate to the business environment.
- Strengthening management's ability to plan, prioritize, resource, monitor and communicate enterprise projects throughout the year in a manner that supports alignment with SaskCentral's strategic business plans.
- Championing the use of project management methodology in all areas of the organization and providing opportunities to support/train business units in the use of the methodology.
- Providing effective leadership, coaching and support to the all members of the department in the development, delivery and ongoing support of planning and project management services.

Qualifications

The ideal candidate will possess a university degree in business/commerce combined with 5 years experience in a strategic management role complemented with leadership competence. Experience in the financial services or regulatory environments would also be an asset. Advanced knowledge of the principles and procedures for providing specialist level planning and project management are required for this role. Strong facilitation skills and proven capacity and success in identifying and developing complex corporate initiatives are key elements required of this role. Core competencies for this position focus on initiative, accountability, flexibility, teamwork, and listening and communication.

Please include in your cover letter examples of how you meet the qualifications for this position. Interested applicants should submit a resume in confidence stating Competition Number 1017-08FTP by end of day November 14, 2017.
